Jack Cummings Discusses Several Orinda Problems

BY POLITICUS

A supervisor's life is a busy one and, apparently, never a dull moment is allowed to bore any of the component parts of our county's governing body.

So many requests were out for Supervisor Jack Cummings to put in an appearance last week that the resulting report on some of his activities and "opinions" could well be labeled "The Cumming's Report."

REPORT 1, FIRST PART:

Regarding the letter sent out by Orindans Inc. and signed by Donald F. Skilling, secretary-treasurer of the improvement organization, in which the condition of newly oiled roads in the area was criticized. "Failure to roll the roads properly after being paved, the letter to Cummings stated, "leaves the roads in a deplorable condition for passenger traffic."

The letter went on to point out that the Orinda Fire Chief gave the group the "understanding that the county no longer plans on rolling the paving jobs."

The letter was "entirely out of line," Cummings declared. The road work being done in the area is only "patch work," with special care being taken that the oiled surfaces are covered with "pea gravel" (designed to absorb all excess oil which rises to the top of the highway on warm days).

MAKE HASTE

Cummings could not understand why the Orindans expected to hear from him in such a short time. He pointed out that the letter had been sent to Martinez and had been answered by County Surveyor Barkley on the day following its arrival.

He pointed out that he is always available for conferences whereby grievances could be worked out amicably.

AND ANOTHER THING —

Another point Cummings wished made clear was that part in the letter which reported certain "understandings" credited to the Orinda Fire Chief. The supervisor said that he has in his possession a letter from the Chief denying that he had made any statements which could be construed to indicate that he knew anything about the future policies of the county's road building department.

To summarize: Cummings said the letter was "uncalled for," contained "statements not true," he was given "no chance to answer," and he has "always cooperated" with all individuals and groups in an effort to settle any problems.

Cummings informed the SUN that he will meet with M. W. Loveland, (newly-elected president of the newly-formed Orinda Highland Association) to personally survey the El Toyonal area with the purpose of working out a satisfactory solution to the "school bus problem" in that area.

AND PART TWO:

Cummings believes that there are several problems to be met which some may have overlooked in the desire to get school bus transportation. Namely, there are some very steep banks alongside the road which, if road straightening work were to be started, would require the county to get easements for necessary right-of-way. The Supervisor predicted that a right-of-way wide enough to take care of proposed road work would put the road "in some of the residents' front porch."

But Cummings promised to cooperate to the fullest extent possible. (Loveland said he had not heard from Mr. Cummings as yet, but he would be very happy to meet with him.)

Part three and the concluding section of the First Phase of the Cummings Report: "Nothing new has been done as yet" on the proposed extension of Las Vegas Road to Charles Hill.

Still Waiting For Break in Orinda Burglary

The "break" promised in the eight months old burglary case of an Orinda home has developed into a game of hide-and-seek, according to Inspector Norman Wilson of the Sheriff's Department.

Wilson received word several weeks ago that two men waiting for sentence to be passed on them in a Fresno burglary, were ready to "talk" about the Orinda robbery. It was indicated that the men would tell Wilson what had happened to the property stolen in Orinda.

Wilson made the trip to Fresno but the "talkers" were gone . . . to San Quentin. So last Saturday, Wilson made the trip to San Quentin with the assumption that his men were cornered at last.

You guessed it, the two are now back in Fresno waiting to testify in another trial. Wilson has decided to patiently wait until the two "commuters" get back to San Quentin.

Mothers Club Membership drive To Begin Monday

Orinda Mothers Club will hold its annual membership drive starting Monday. The drive will continue for two weeks.

The theme this year is "Around the World with Mothers Club." Classes of both the Orinda and Glorietta schools will compete, with the first class to win the Clipper race with 100% membership receiving a cash prize of $5. All other classes "completing the course" within the two weeks period will receive $3.

During the drive the schools will be attractively decorated with large travel posters and maps which have been furnished by Worden Travel Bureau.

The drive will be directed by Mrs. Alfred Johnson, membership chairman.

County Answers Orindans Inc.

Orindans Inc. received a letter last week from Joseph Barkley, county surveyor and road commissioner, outlining the usual county procedure in maintaining road surfaces.

The communication followed a complaint to Supervisor Cummings by Orindans Inc. regarding the lack of rolling or finishing of roads in the Orinda area. The matter was turned over to Barkley, who returned the following answer.

"In the matter of building county roads, it is the intention of this department to continue with standard approved methods. Occasonally on short jobs or maintenance projects it is not possible or economical to assemble all the equipment that is necessary to do limited projects in the manner that we would do under more favorable conditions.

"I assure you that it is not the intention of the county to expend county funds on work without carrying out the proper operation to do a finished job.

"Thanking you for your interest in our roads,

Very truly yours,
Joseph W. Barkley

Samuel Worswick Speaks to Club

Samuel F. Worswick spoke before Orinda Rotary members at the Wednesday luncheon meeting on the "Romance of Selling, The What, the Why and How To Do It of Salesmanship."

The speaker has included 15 years of counter selling, 12 years as a sales counselor and 8 years devoted to his present study on the romance of selling in his background of experience with the sales world.

Frank Olsen was program chairman of this interesting meeting.

Park Pool Board Names Slate

Orinda Park Pool board members met at the home of President Glen Holtwick last week to plan replacement of the four board members whose terms of office are up. Outgoing directors are Mrs. Betty Miner, Mrs. Liz Moller, Mrs. Peg Winters and Wayne Littlejohn.

The nominating committee, headed by Mrs. Moller and Mr. Ward, submitted the following names: James Gardiner, Mrs. Laura Cooper, Henry Muller, Mrs. Helen Parker and Mrs. Jean de Kay.

The nominations will be submitted to the membership at a community luncheon at the pool October 9, at which time annual reports will be presented.

Parents Club to Hold First Meeting

First meeting of Parents' Club of Acalanes High will be held in the school cafeteria on Monday at 8 p.m.

The program will consist of a discussion on "School Procedure." Mr. Laney, president, will preside. All parents of Acalanes students are welcome.

DONMEN UNVEIL THIS SEASON'S MYSTERY FORMATION, the name is still a mystery, but it's no mystery as to what Coach Mattson's gang intends to do to their opposition this season. The picture proves that the fellows are "high" for their opening game with Albany on Acalanes' Memorial Field tonight, 8 p.m. sharp. In the front ranks are (left to right) Bob Ferro, Lloyd Torchio, Harry Nielsen. In the backfield, Pete Larmer and Jay Forni hold quarterback Jack King high as he sets to throw for that elusive touchdown.

Don Eleven Will Tackle Albany in Season's Opener

For most students the fall term won't really get underway until this evening when Coach Erwin Mattson's 1949 football squad tangles with Albany High at Acalanes field in their first tilt of the season.

Using a "T" and single wingback formation, the Dons are out to get revenge for last year's drubbing when Albany ploughed them under 21 to 6. One hundred seven have turned out for the Don squad.

More Than 200 Attend Lions Barbecue Picnic

Over 200 people enjoyed the Orinda Lions Club barbecue given at Canyon last Saturday. Lions and their wives and friends and many visiting members of other Bay Area Lions Clubs did full justice to the 200 steaks, the vegetable salad and the 200 ears of fresh corn picked by Roy Nason earlier, much earlier, in the day.

Following the dinner, guests danced to the latest tunes, supplied by an orchestra.

Among those who worked on the various committees to make this outing such a complete success were: chefs Jim Lucas and Joe Navone, Mrs. Dorothy Hartzell who was the untiring dishwasher, Marge McMahon, Deedee Mason, Tillie Lucas and Frances Navone, who prepared the salads and salad dressings, Paul Vashell, who did the electrical job, running the necessary light wires across the road and through the grounds. George Hartzell, Sr. was chairman of arrangements for the evening.

Nursery School to Hold Open House

Some 150 members are expected to attend the Open House Party of the Orinda Cooperative Nursery School to be held Wednesday in the home and garden of Mrs. Edward Solinsky, 9 La Plaza.

The social event is planned just for the members and will be the Association's initial get-acquainted event.

TREMENDOUS GROWTH

Enrollment in the Nursery School classes has grown tremendously, with 44 regulars signed up for the Monday, Wednesday and Friday classes, and 30 enrolled for the Tuesday and Thursday sessions. There are also about 80 on waiting lists.

There will be extra parking space available on the Community Church grounds, it was announced. The church is just to the rear of the Solinsky residence, within walking distance.

Child care will be provided at the children's unit of the Community Church from 2:30 to 5 p.m. (hours of the tea). There will be a charge of 35c per child.

Members of the Administrative Board will act as hostesses at the affair. Officers and members of the Board are as follows:

OFFICERS

President, Mrs. Frank Brush; vice president and chairman for the party is Mrs. George Rice; secretary, Mrs. Edward Solinsky; treasurer, Mrs. D. B. Woodcock; and the following Board members: The Mesdames Harold Jones, Robert Spott, John Nowland, N. F. Coates, T. G. Cullen. S. A. Ballard, A. A. Schmitt, C. F. Borden, R. F. Bottjer and E. J. Unruh.

Twenty mothers from last year's membership will also assist as hostesses.

El Toyonal Area Forms Association Want Roads Fixed

Orinda Highlands Association was formed Tuesday night as a permanent improvement organization for the upper El Toyonal area.

The group was originally motivated by the need for school bus transportation in that vicinity and decided upon forming into an association following the recent controversy over obtaining extension of a school bus route into their area.

Frank Loveland was elected president of the group with Mrs. John Van Dyne named acting secretary. Committees were formed to approach Supervisor Cummings with the purpose of getting immediate action in making upper El Toyonal safe for school bus travel.

12-15 Club to Hold Barbecue

The 12-15 Club will hold a barbecue to which the husbands are invited on Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the Howard Fisher home, Orinda Highway.

About the middle of October, the Club will have a card party to raise funds for their treasury in anticipation of the many demands made upon it by the year's philanthropic projects.

First Fall Meeting Of Fellowship Set

The first fall meeting of Pilgrim Fellowship of the Orinda Community Church will be held Sunday night from 7 to 9 at the church. Roger Dunn, president will preside. The meeting is to welcome back all old members as well as to give a hearty invitation to all Freshmen as new members. A special program is planned.

Narrow Margin Passes School Bond Issue Vote

Orinda Schol District's $92,000 School Bond issue was passed by the required two thirds majority of voters when 354 voted "yes" while 103 cast a "no" ballot in Tuesday's election. School trustees will meet Tuesday to canvas the vote and check the tally sheets as required by law.

There are about 1870 persons eligible to vote in the election but only 457 voters took time out to cast their votes.

Because all voters cast their ballots at one voting station, it is impossible to give a complete breakdown by precincts. The following number of votes (unofficial) were cast by voters from the six precincts:

BREAKDOWN

Precinct 1, El Toyonal area, 96 votes cast; Precinct 2, Minor Road area, 100 votes cast; Precinct 3, Upper La Espiral to Las Vegas area, 68 votes cast; Precinct 4, West of Country Club area, 50 votes cast; Precinct 5, Moraga Highway area near Crossroads district, 42 votes cast; Precinct 6, Moraga and Glorietta areas, 98 votes cast. (The above by unofficial canvass.)

In spite of the seemingly small turn - out, Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff pointed out that there were more votes cast in Tuesday's election than at the recent Trustee election.

TO BUILD ADDITION

Sheaff announced that the district had received authorization to construct three additional classrooms at Glorietta school and they are now awaiting approval to build three new classrooms at the Orinda school. Construction will begin as soon as the bonds are sold, Sheaff added.

The following enrollment for Orinda's school has been announced: Glorietta 251, Orinda Grammar Scholo 484. (Total 735) total enrollment for last year, first day, was 586.

Results of the recent post card ture enrollments in the Orinda District are not compiled. So far only 600 of the 1200 post cards mailed out have been filled out and returned. All persons receiving the cards are urged to fill them out and return them to the school.

Juvenile Driver Hits Patrol Car; Gets Citation

As a result of last week's traffic accidents involving nine cars on the highway in the Lafayette area, only one citation had been issued so far, according to Captain George Belon of the Highway Patrol in Martinez.

The juvenile whose car ran into the highway patrol car in front of El Nido, the evening of September 1, was cited for speeding, Belon said. Occupants of the highway patrol car were officers Ralph Campbell and Gordon Campbell.

No citations had been issued to persons involved in the other two accidents, a five car "rear end collision" on the highway just east of Acalanes Road, September 2, and an accident in which a car driven by Marguerite C. Haas of Walnut Creek allegedly crashed into a parked car belonging to A. M. McOmie, Jr. of Danville. Miss Haas and two occupants of the parked car were injured, according to reports.

Belon said that reports of the accidents are being studied by the District Attorney's office.

County Fair Is Rarin' to Go

The six-mile "Bunion Derby"—Pittsburg to Antioch—to be staged as a part of the Contra Costa County Fair program on Sunday morning, has a growing list of entrants.

Starting from Pittsburg at 10 a.m., the marathon will end at the new County Fairgrounds in Antioch. Some 35 runners participated during the last fair and provided a thrilling finish.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded, prizes for the "oldest" and "youngest" runners and a medal for each participant will also be awarded.

Amateur talent contests, Queen for a Day, horseshow, livestock show, cake baking contest and dancing to the music of Eddie Fitzpatrick's orchestra make the "Fair Days" a must.

Local Artists Featured in Art Show; Part of Sales to Community Club

The display of paintings exhibited at Lafayette Furniture store in a "courtesy show" of the work of local artists is growing larger, with a portion of the price of those to be sold dedicated to the Lafayette Community Club in a cooperative plan of the artists.

Hangings in oils, charcoal, water color and crayon attest to the ability of our local talented people, with work by Dorothy Sutton, Wayne Spurgeon, Eloise Birch, Harvey Hansen, Doff Herman, Barbara Dawson, Patricia Ellerd, Ann Fleager and Barbara Lusebrink on display. A still life in oils, painted by R. Winkle, local fireman, is a new addition to the show, as well as pictures painted by Eva Brebes and R. J. Heisler.

Milt Adair, owner of the store, welcomes the work of any local artist to add to the exhibit and invites the public to come in to see the display. The store is open Tuesdays and Thursdays till 9 p.m. and from 1 to 6 on Sundays, as well as its regular weekday hours.

As their part in formation of a Community Center, those artists who have placed their displayed work on sale, have planned to present a percentage of the purchase price to the Lafayette Community Club to further its purposes.

Lila Murphy Dance Classes To Be Organized

Next Monday and Wednesday have been set aside for enrollment for Childrens' Dancing Classes at Orinda School Auditorium, with Thursday the day for the Lafayette registration at Town Hall, according to Lila Murphy who will organize her classes for the new year at those times.

Well-known throughout the area for the recitals given by her talented pupils each year, Mrs. Murphy plans to continue classes at the school until completion of her new dance studio at the Crossroads. With the completion of the Land Building at this location, classes will be moved into the well-equipped studio, which will be complete with ballet bars, acrobatic mats, mirrors and stretching equipment, all of which are important adjuncts to proper ballet instruction.

Mrs. Murphy asks that parents contact her as soon as possible to obtain the most convenient class time for their youngsters. She also asks that enrollment be made promptly to avoid disappointment as the classes will be closed as soon as the quota for each is reached.

Phelps Completes Training Cruise

Lt. (jg) Ralph H. Phelps, USNR of 6 Oak Lane, completed a two-week naval reserve cruise aboard the light cruiser USS Pasedena (CL-65) on Friday, September 9, when the ship docked at San Francisco to disembark her 30 reserve officers and 48 enlisted men.

So ended an active two weeks for Lt. Phelps during which time he observed and took part in the varied activities found aboard a modern cruiser in a modern fleet. Gunnery exercises, amphibious operations in conjunction with other ships, watch standing periods, lectures and training films, plus a period of weekend "liberty" in Long Beach, filled the time of the local officer.

Upon completion of his training duty Lt. Phelps returned to his position as a teacher at the Richmond Union High School, Richmond, California. Lt. Frank Porto, USNR, also a teacher at Richmond High was on the previous cruise of the Pasadena.

Building OK's for Three New homes

Permits were issued for three new residences and garages in Orinda area and three new residences and garages in Lafayette area, besides additional permits for miscellaneous construction, the week ending September 8.

Owner O. Callohan will have a home and garage built on Camino De Diablo near East Rincon Road, Orinda; owner and builder Phil Hickox will build a new residence and garage on Camino Encinas near Moraga Highway, Orinda, and owner and builder, W. S. Dean will construct a house and garage on Honey Hill Road between Charles Hill Road and Miner Road also in Orinda.

Permits issued for Lafayette included: one to owner Robert Hudson for a residence and garage on Glen Road near Terrace Road, Happy Valley Glen; to owner Robert J. Evans for a residence and garage on St. Mary's Road north of St. Mary's Estates and a third to W. E. Eldrich for a house and garage on Topper Lane near Moraga Road.

Other o.k.'s for Lafayette construction included one to owner and builder L. Raffo, for residence alternation on Thompson Road near Mt. Diablo Boulevard; for building of a residence on Brown Street near Diablo Boulevard issued to owner and builder, Gary Grover; for a new garage at the corner of Upper Happy Valley Road, owner and builder, Roger Amidon, and permission for erection of a wall and tool shed at the end of Camillia Road, granted to owner and builder, L. W. Donoghue.

Owner and builder, I. C. Taylor, was also issued a permit for building of a carport on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near Charles Hill Road and Hidden Valley Road.

CARNATION AWARDS

Alameda and Contra Costa Counties maintained their constant winning by taking first and second awards for carnations featured in the counties division at the California State Fair.

Yolo County won first place in the counties division Marigold competition. Sutter was second, and Contra Costa third.

Guild Ladies Hold First Meeting

First Fall meeting of the Evening Section of the Women's Guild of the Orinda Community Church was held on September 6 at the home of Mrs. Horace Breed of 80 Camino Encinas. Mrs. A. D. Henry, the chairman, presided.

Though the Giuld has not met for two months, a sewing group has been exceedingly active during the summer months, creating articles to be sold at the bazaar on November 8. This group is working under the leadership of Mrs. M. W. Loveland of 32 Camino del Diablo.

Following the business meeting, the Guild was treated to a style show and display of the many things made by the sewing group. The variety, the novelty and the workmanship of the articles will make the sewing booth a popular spot on the day of the bazaar.

Very lovely refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Ernest Rahmeyer, Mrs. Myron Williams and Mrs. Paula Collings.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science Churches on Sunday, September 18. The Golden Text is taken from Psalms: "Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob" (114:7).

Included in the citations comprising the sermon are the following:

The Bible: "Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee. With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Isaiah 26:8, 9).

Women's Guild Hears Review of Books; One Authored by Dwight Watkins

The Women's Guild of the Orinda Community Church had a most interesting meeting September 6 at the new home of Marian Devin on Jonas Hill Road, Moraga. About 45 women were present.

During the business meeting the group heard of the many ways in which the Guild had given financial support to the church and various philanthropic agencies. One of their last projects has been the furnishing of the pastor's new study in the church's belfry room.

GUEST SPEAKER

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Ernest Jackson, chairman of the book section of the Berkeley Women's City Club, who was introduced by Mrs. Challis Gore. Mrs. Jackson gave such a brief but lucid and entertaining review of the following books that there has been a "run" on these books in libraries and book stores ever since, by Orinda women:

"The Egyptian" by Mika Waltari, a historical novel of 3000 years ago; "The Aspirin Age 1919-1941," by Isabel Leighton, an entertaining account of people and events of those days; "Lydia Pinkham is Her Name," by Jean Burton, which tells of the family's fortune being made by the $40,000,000 spent in advertising; "Family Fortunes" by Given Davenport, about a Kentucky family's struggle through times of declining wealth; "Wells Fargo," by Edward Hungerford, full of new and interesting stories of this company's beginnings and its phenominal growth and influence in California's early days.

ORINDA AUTHOR

"Gandy Century," by John Bruce, a story of newspapers for a century; "Vines in the Sun" by Idwal Jones, a delightful story of California's vineyards; "The Mature Mind" by Harry Overstreet; "How to Think About Ourselves" by Bonaro Overstreet, both very interesting and helpful; "Effective Thinking" by Dwight Watkins an Orinda resident; "Till Fish Us Do Part" by Beatrice Cook, a delightful humorous story full of chuckles: "The Doctor Wears Three Faces" by Mary Bard, a good story to read aloud.

The October meeting will be held jointly with the evening section of the Guild on October 4 in the church. This will be an evening meeting to which husbands are invited.

David Ashbrooks At Home in Albany

On September 8, Mrs. Gladys Schwatka and David Ashbrook were married in Twin Falls, Idaho. The couple has been enjoying a honeymoon in Yellowstone National Park, but this had to come to an end about the 14th in time for both Gladys and David to register for their second year law course in Bolt Hall, University of California.

They will live in Albany in the former home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burke, Mrs. Ashbrook's parents. Little Susan Schwatka will live with them and attend Marin School.

Many Orinda friends and the Dramateurs are sorry to see Gladys leave Orinda, but all wish her much happiness and success.

Summer Bees – Some Are Wasps

For many of us, this summer has been one busy chase of shooing bees out of our bonnets, out of our kitchens and away from patio parties. This led to calming frightened guests while soothing bee stung children and swollen jawed canine protectors.

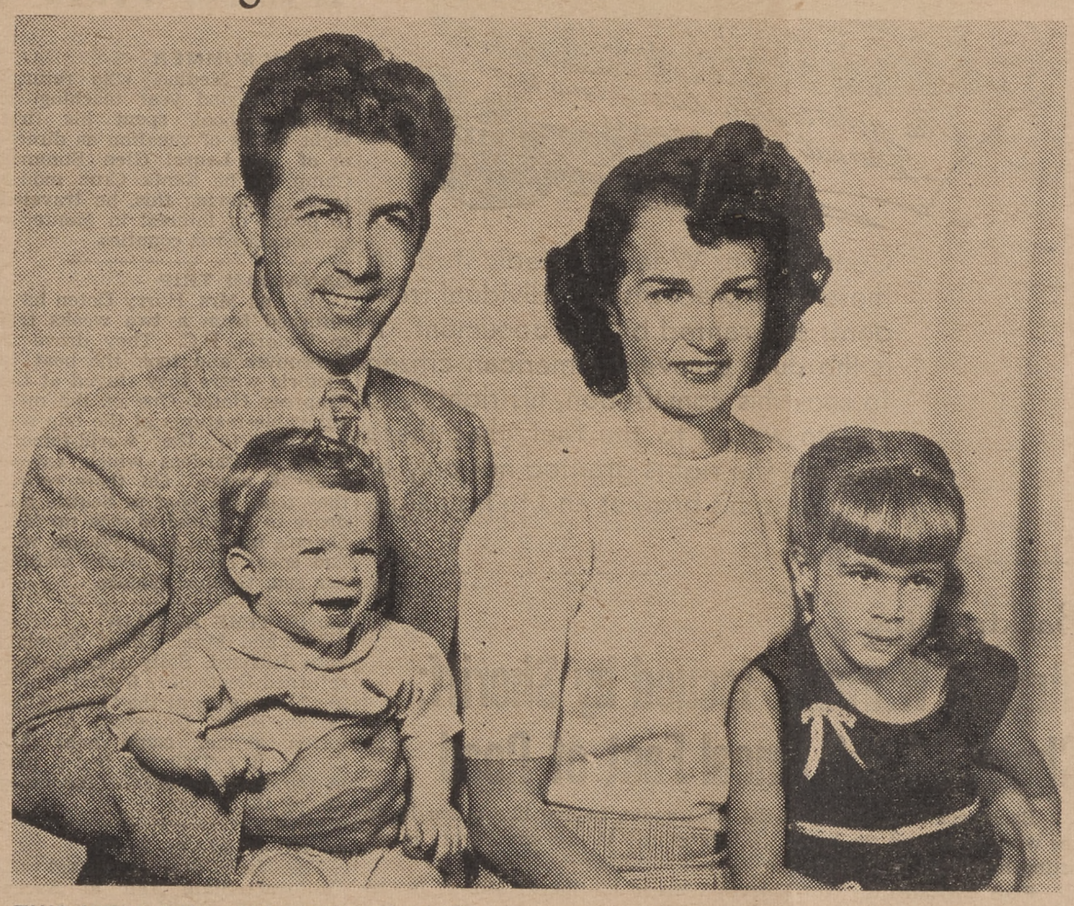

But Kenneth Jensen of "Dime And Dollar" and Al Uffens of "Blodgett's Linoleum" turned tables on the bees a week ago and looted their abodes. The bees did not pick up napkins and shoo these robbers away as our defenseless guests have meekly done to Sir Bee.

In a body, the swarm went out to bury their stingers deep. Jensen came out with a chin swollen so double that it reached his chest. Uffens had swollen wrists, ankles and — well — he refused to tell where else he was stung but the gentlemen got their honey.

The hives are a church project and to the folks who have called the Sun asking whom to call about getting bees away from their premises — Uffens will welcome a bigger swarm; of bees that is — not wasps, yellow jackets or hornets.

In looking at the many different foods the bees are taking a fancy to now, we wonder what the honey will be called. "Watermelon" is not so bad but what about "Baked Bean," "Hot Dog," or "Hors-d'-oeuvre?"

Family Portrait

THIS WEEK THE SUN'S FAMILY PORTRAIT presents the Urban Starks of Lafayette Oaks. (Portrait by Victorina Willson)

BY VICTORINA WILLSON

MEET THIS WEEK'S FEATURED FAMILY, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Stark, Claudia, who is five and a half and Clinton, a smiling, very athletic young man of nine months.

The Starks came to Lafayette in 1941 from the Bay Area. He is one of those rather rare "Californians," a native, for he was born in Lodi.

Although born in neighboring Nevada, Mrs. Stark finished her schooling in Alameda and it was there she met her husband. They are members of the Hilltoppers, that interesting group one of our past Family Portrait families told us about.

Mr. Stark is a painting and decorating contractor with gardening as his favorite hobby. The results of his hobby are reflected in their home on Hawthorne Drive.

At the present time, Mrs. Stark said she found Clinton and Claudia took up most of her "hobby" time but when she does have some leisure, she likes to work on leather and has made some very lovely things.

Timothy Q. Hawkshaw, now an elderly grey cat, is the only family pet. Timothy Q. acquired his interesting name because when he was first brought home as a tiny kitten in a basket, he was so snoopy . . . . and still is.

'Afro-Cuban Review' Opens at Geary Theater

The famous "Afro Cuban Revue," new musical show direct from Havana, opens a three weeks engagement at the Geary Theatre in San Francisco, Sunday evening, September 18, featuring Canelina, Oscar Lopez, Tondelayo, Isaura, Conchita, Litico, Anita, Delpino, Beba, Kilowat, Mercedita, the Mambo Dancers, Tropicana drummers and "Las Mulatas de Fuego" (fiery mulatas), Havana's most beautiful girls. Jose Urfe directs the company and orchestra of forty.

Mambo, rumba, afro, conga, atomo, nanigo, mula, chango, santo, pato pasqual and other native dances of Cuba are introduced, all magnificently costumed in authentic style. "Maraquero," "Mamboana," "Lucumi," "Las Trompetas," "Arrimate Carinito," "Una Kiradita" and other new songs are featured, along with "Mama Inez," "Siboney," "Tabu," "El Manisere," "Karabali" and other favorites popular in previous years.

Produced by Brigida Rivalta, the "Afro Cuban Revue" followed "Cabalgata" at the Teatre Marti, Havana, last year. After six months in the Cuban capital, the show played four months at the Follies, Mexico City, and one month each in Panama, Caracas, Trinidad and Jamaica, and then returned to Havana for a repeat engagement. Following the west coast tour, this attraction goes to New York.

Barbecued Hamburger, Ale Under Stars Planned by Orinda Hospital Branch

On a warm September evening, most people would like to get together with old friends and sing songs and eat barbecued hamburgers and wash them down with mead or brown ale and watch the stars come out and other people work. It's a nice way to end the day, especially if you've been to a swell football game, like Cal-St. Mary's and you're all worn out from rooting.

That's why members of Orinda Branch of Children's Hospital have sent out invitations to the kind of thing people enjoy — a hamburger barbecue after the Cal-St. Mary's game on September 24. So says Mrs. Ted Beckett who ought to know—she's chairman of Orinda Branch.

AT THE STARKS

The barbecue will take place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Roger Stark of Orinda, where there's a big terrace and a magnificent view of San Pablo Dam and a very adequate barbecue for accommodating lots of people with hamburgers and onions, pickles, relishes, pie, accordian music, and second helpings.

Orinda Branch isn't selling tickets to the party—they're charging reasonable rates for what you consume after you get there. Barbecuing will be done exclusively by husbands of the members whose names nclude well-known steer searers like Mike Dunn, Quent Reynolds, Bob Bennett, Frank Fee, Tom Telfer, Roger Stark, Ritchie Smith and Sheldon Kales.

MEN AT WORK

Fire tending and punch serving will be handled by Fred Goodwin, Vad Jelton, Charles Camp, Ted Beckett, Lyle York, Arthur Sheu, Dick Week, Emmett Kilpatrick, Steve Jensen, Dan Sheldon, Phil Ray and Woodburn Lamb. The wives will also work.

If it sounds like fun to you you can still make reservations through Mrs. Dan Sheldon in Orinda. She lives at 42 Los Altos Road. The date again—September 24, after the Cal-St. Mary's game.

VET FLIGHT TRAINING

Veterans now may take flight training under the G. I. Bill without necessarily submitting to Veterans Administration complete justification that the course will be taken in connection with their present or contemplated business or occupation. Waste and Inefficiency!

(AN EDITORIAL)

In these days of high taxes and new bond issues by the county and our various tax districts, we cannot look lightly at inefficiency or waste by our governmental agencies. The following situation is worthy of attention and rectification.

A few months ago the contractor finished installing sewer laterals in the Glenside Estates area in Lafayette. He then brought in his paving crews and resurfaced that part of Glenside Drive and Los Palos that were damaged by installation of sewers.

Almost immediately afterwards, residents in the area were surprised to see crews from the county come in and completely tear up the street. What were they doing? The county was putting in a brand new resurfacing. (Incidentally, the county accomplished this most efficiently and with very little inconvenience to the residents.)

But was this waste and lack of planning necessary? Obviously, closer co-ordination between the sewer contractor and the county could have resulted in savings to the county, which is all of us. As is done in other places, the two should get together; the contractor paying the county the sum he would have spent. The county then does the job.

This incident did not go by unnoticed by our county officials. Supervisor Jack Cummings told this newspaper that action would be taken to remedy this. Meetings were held; an announcement was made stating that henceforth sewer contractors and the county engineer would co-ordinate their efforts.

A few weeks later the sewer contractor in central Lafayette resurfaced the damaged parts of Boyer Circle, which was due for a complete resurfacing by the county. Since then, we have heard repercussions from both parties.

Al Downer, head of the Corporation, said he contacted the county engineer to work out this plan but waited in vain to hear from the county. So, he said, they could not wait any longer and proceeded with the work.

Officials in the county engineer's office declare that their engineer discussed the problem with Downer. They were awaiting his reply when they learned that he went ahead with the job.

Downer admitted to this newspaper that he did not notify the county that he could not wait longer and was going ahead.

Regardless of who did or didn't contact whom, the people of this area have the right to demand that such gross inefficiency and waste be stopped immediately.

There are still many miles of roads to be torn up and sewers to be installed in Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek. With these two incidents serving as poor examples, taxpayers will not condone excuses for lack of cooperation between the county and sewer contractors.

Captain Sandford Sez:

IT'S LAFAYETTE FIESTA TIME!

Now first of all what does "Fiesta" mean? It means a "feast day or festival, a holiday celebrated by games, processions and general merry making." I have read several very interesting historical accounts of Fiestas that were held in this area long ago.

One of the favorite pastimes was a bull and grizzly bear fight. From now to the time of the Fiesta should I encounter a grizzly bear in these hills I will bring it in and on Fiesta Day I will tackle it alone with my left hand tied behind my back. I may even, if coaxed enough, give my famous rendition of "Estoban Macpherson," the Scotch toreador, whose method of bull killing, while not as dramatic as the Spanish is nevertheless very efficient. The Scotch toreador clings on to the bull's tail with his left hand and beats it into submission with a club carried in his right hand.

SOME YEARS AGO a number of us got together and organized the Lafayette Horse Show, a two day event, which became popular and well-known throughout the State and even attracted entries from other States. This event did a very great deal to popularize our little community and really put it on the map.

But because of lack of forethought, petty jealousies and straight stupidity on the part of some, our Horse Show was allowed to die. And many of our present day residents never even heard of such an event.

NOW BACK TO THE FIESTA, which we must not allow to die. There will be a varied and delightful program . . . A pet show starts things off at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. There will be gifts and prizes for all including the most unusual pet (new brides please do not enter your hubbies). There will be Folk Dancing. And those with White Elephants are asked to leave them at The Emporium, Bennett's Supply Store, The Corral or the Orchard Nursery.

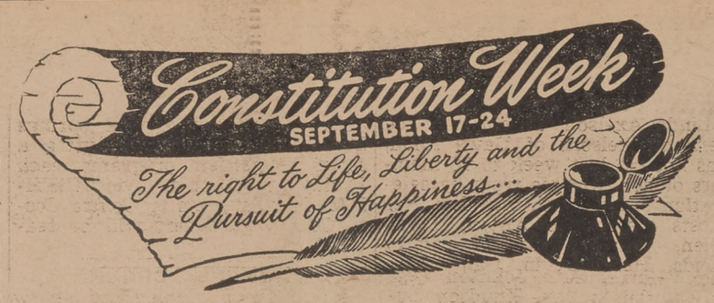

Ivy Spurgeon, the booth chairman, reports a children's grab bag, fortune-telling, ceramics, Bingo, train rides and a merry-go-round.

INTERIOR DECORATION DEPARTMENT, both solid and liquid, will be under the capable jurisdiction of Evelyn Janzen, the Food Chairman.

We all hope and trust that everybody will turn out and bring their friends from other parts so that those less fortunate may enjoy our magnificent climate as well as the joyous spirit of the Fiesta. And so, until Fiesta Day, 2 p.m. Saturday, September 17th,

Believe me,
Most sincerely yours,
A. G. SANDFORD

P.S. There will be a number of very beautiful senoritas, but don't bother about them too much, you guys, because I will take care of them myself. A.G.S.

Constitution Week is dedicated to these very precepts of individual freedoms as granted by the document. It is the duty of every American citizen to know his constitution, his rights . . . and to waken to the fact, that these too, are the rights granted not only to him but to his brother and to his neighbor.

Backtracking

'Annual Warning' Issued by Sheriff; Check 64,350 Lineal Feet of Road

Backtrackin' is off down the trail again, baying like a beagle, to see what is around the bend . . . behind us. Meet some mighty interesting headlines back there.

FOR EXAMPLE, "Nut Thieves Warned by Sheriff Miller" in October of 1940. Not that we don't have "nut thieves" in all seasons, but it was Miller's "annual warning" to all thieves that the law would prosecute but plenty as the county's walnut harvest got underway.

Oh, yes, any nuts picked up on public right-of-ways by the wrong persons made them eligible to become a nut thief, the item went on to say. Nuts belong to them as grows 'em. As Cap Sandford would say along about now . . . Nutz!

HERE'S A REAL MILE STONE for the area. Dedication ceremonies were held in October of '40 for the quarter-million dollar Acalanes High School plant.

Principal Stanley Warburton told the area's eager parents and their probably not-so-eager children that doors to the beautiful institution would open September 10. The shop and gym had not been completed but construction was underway.

BACKTRACKIN' has to sneak in a little plug . . . See where the LAFAYETTE SUN was expanding in 1940 . . . New building, etc. to take care of "rapid expansion" back in October of that year. And taking an out-of-character peek ahead, Backtrackin' sees plans for another expansion move . . . into our own building, according to plans.

WHO CAN TELL from this item whether we are going backwards or forwards through our newspaper files . . . Orinda residents were uniting in October of '40, to find a "solution to the road maintenance problem."

And Orinda Improvement Club met to form a "permanent Roads Division." Their eventual aim . . . to bring 64,350 lineal feet of roads in the Orinda area up to county specifications so the county could take over.

And then what happened . . . Or did we miss a trail marker someplace?

I wonder if the Estes family is eating deer this year. Back in October ('40 again) Lee Estes and his wife went deer hunting up north and killed two bucks . . . one deer weighed in, or rather "out" at 200 pounds.

Let's take time out while Backtrackin' dreams about going deer hunting up north this year . . . which will be all the deer hunting done by this item hunte.

Orinda Here and There . . .

A BUSY SUMMER
William Medlen, who returns for his second year teaching at Orinda School, spent his first eight weeks of vacation as director of the Laurel Glen Summer Camp in the Santa Cruz mountains. Following this, he traveled to points of interest in Monterey and Santa Cruz counties.

CANADIAN TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doten have returned from a two weeks trip to Victoria, B.C. They drove to Vancouver and took the boat to Victoria where they stayed at the Empress Hotel. One of the most enjoyable features of the trip was a visit to the world-famous Butchart Gardens which extend over 16 acres. On their return they took the boat to Seattle and drove to Portland to pick up Mrs. Doten's mother, Mrs. Wands, who had spent the two weeks visiting her son, Gordon Wands.

LONG TIME IN LAIR
Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Twining, with Richard, Sally and Charles, returned September 6 after spending 11½ weeks at the "Lair of the Golden Bear," University of California alumni camp near Mt. Shasta. The Twinings had a part in the management of the camp during that time.

HI HO — STATE FAIR
The Jack Stahles visited the California State Fair at Sacramento last Sunday, where they particularly enjoyed the county and machinery exhibits.

FOURTH BIRTHDAY
Jet Horton, daughter of the George Hortons of Woodland Road, celebrated her fourth birthday last week, with a party at her home. Her guests included her sister, Cassandra, and Nancy Brailsford, Cathie Oliphant, Bobby Williams and Diane Edelin.

AT CORONADO
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy of Orinda recently registered as guests at the Hotel del Coronado.

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY
Cheri Sharp, daughter of the James Sharps of El Patio Road, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday with a luncheon and swimming party at the Orinda Country Club. Her guests included Lolita Boysen, Susan and Tommy Kisner, Ricky Goerl, Sylvia Bolman, Wendy Welch, Katherine Coombs, Jonathan Jensen, Dicky Stark, Deborah Smith, Mary Carolyn Foster, Edson Griswold, Bryan Reynolds, Jeanie Patten, Linda Bargones, Scot McFarland, Marian Oakley, Helen Moylan and Betty Lou Kendall.

HOUSE GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph "Miles" Standish were the house guests recently of the Ray Devins. Mr. Standish is with the National City Bank in Japan. The Standish's visit here was a stop-over on their way to Connecticut for Mr. Standish's home leave.

TAHOE OUTING
Mrs. Howard Lane, with her daughter Donna and niece, Pemela Mitchell, spent 12 days recently at Zephyr Point, on the Nevada side of Lake Tahoe.

HOUSE GUESTS
House guests of the Robert Elders of Via Hermosa last week were Mrs. W. H. Schoppe, from San Francisco, and Gail Champion, young cousin of Sheri Elder. Mrs. Schoppe was formerly with the Metropolitan Opera.

COMBINATION PARTY
A combined birthday and farewell party for Neil Van Reen was held at the Piedmont home of former Orindans, the J. A. Herzogs, Saturday. His guests included Bertram and Patty Fisher, Martin Smith, Jeff Schwarck, Mary McFarland and Sheri Elder. The children enjoyed swimming and a beautiful cake on which was inscribed "Have a Happy Trip Home, Neil." Neil and his mother, Mrs. Cornelius Van Reen, have been spending the summer with the James Andersons.

Record Enrollment Packs High School

Classes opened to a full house last Monday at Acalanes High School as an estimated 950 youngsters "eagerly" stomped back to school. A staff of 46 teachers will guide the school program. Students and faculty got down to work the first day when classes met and assignments were made.

This year the school plant is jammed to capacity. Each room is being used every hour of the school day, according to Neil M. Parsons, superintendent.

By spring, seven additional class rooms, a new library and a study will be completed. Three of the classrooms will be in a new wing now under construction. One room will adjoin the new library and the rest will be converted over from the study hall and library now in use. More office and storage space and a women teacher's lounge are also being built.

Gardeners will begin planting turf on the field next to the tennis courts soon to provide more room for physical education classes. During the summer the athletic field was bounded by a cyclone wire fence.

Superintendent Parsons reports that the district has bought an additional 3½ acres from Emory Marshall for the new high school site south of Walnut Creek. This fourth parcel of land adjoins property already purchased for the proposed school site.

NEW ORINDA RESIDENTS

New to Orinda are the following residents: Neal W. Holding of El Toyonal, Wallace Barnett of Altamount Drive, J. C. Moore, Jr. of Madrone Place, William E. Fleischman of Oakwood Road, Charles Bergren of Claremont Avenue, J. W. Morris of Loma Vista, E. R. Crouder, Jr., of Crest View and Captain K. L. Deichler of Hacienda Circle.

Patsy Raymer Celebrates Birthday Number Five

Three little playmates, Estelle Cataline, Brenda Lee Trounce and Toni Brothers attended a special dinner party at Orinda Willows September 7, in honor of Patsy Raymer's fifth birthday. Patsy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Raymer of 73 La Campana, who also enjoyed the birthday dinner.

Not to be outdone by Mrs. Raymer's orchid corsage, each little girl wore several baby orchids presented by the honoree's father, to add a grown-up touch to this important occasion. Party favors marked each place and arrival of the candlelighted birthday cake at the conclusion of dinner added the last touch to the excitement.

Reports are that Patsy had more fun blowing out the candles that lighted the table than she did the ones on the cake, but all the girls had fun.

Monday was another milestone in Patsy's fifth year when she started kindergarten at Orinda Grammar School.

ORINDAN ON RADIO

Del Armstrong of Oak Springs District, Orinda, is presenting a series of garden programs each Friday at 7:15 p.m. over KSFH-F.M. Helpful hints to Contra Costa County gardeners will be featured.

AND BOULDER CREEK

Mrs. Joe F. Conley and her two sons returned Sunday for the opening of school after spending the summer at the Conley summer home in Boulder Creek, in the Santa Cruz mountains.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

TRIP POSTPONED

Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Jensen, of Charles Hill Road, recently entertained the Ray Devins, Max Vitaleys and Poul Cops at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Cops and their two sons were enroute to Shanghai, where Mr. Cops is an attorney, when the situation in China forced them to abandon their plans and decide to remain here for six months. They are now spending their time looking for a house in this area for their stay.

AT TAHOE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boysen were at Lake Tahoe over Labor Day.

SOLINSKYS AT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Solinsky are back home after a vacation spent with friends at Santa Monica.

I'm Frank...

when I warn you that today's column opens on a serious note. If you don't feel like being serious — better skip the next few paragraphs. If you're interested in America's future, her children, better read on.

Before the end of this year there will be more than 40,000 victims of Polio. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is now paying $4,000 per hour — $100,000 per day — $3,000,000 per month. In two weeks the fund will be gone.

THE FOUNDATION is attempting to raise $14,500,000 between September 8th and 15th. Since we are in the middle of the greatest Polio epidemic in history, I thought some of you folks might want to help. I don't think we should let a single American child be crippled for lack of money to pay for continued medical care.

Let's all join the Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive and send our dimes and dollars to POLIO, Orinda Post Office, Orinda California.

RIGHT UP IN THE FRONT part of the Orinda Hardware is our Vice Department.

Yes sir, up front, middle aisle, we have the slickest array of vices, wrenches, hammers, pliers, squares. In fact, it's worth anyone's time to pause by our tool counter for a quick look-see. In fact they are "WORTH TOOLS." Wonderful values, too.

WILL AND PETE AND I went to the State Fair last week and I am sure glad to be a Californian, even if it is via Brooklyn. What horses! What cows! "Them" fruit, boy, oh, boy!

We saw a prize hog that looked just like Uncle Olaf. He's on my Dad's side, or was, until Pa refused to loan him money.

We've seen Fairs in New York state, New Joisey and Pittsboigh, but believe me, they were all that the name implies: fair. They should change the Sacramento affair to the California Spectacular instead of Fair. If you haven't been, you just ain't lived.

DID YOU GET your Fall guide to Better Living? Hope you did and hope you are all better livers because of it. Come on in and we'll make some of those suggestions a reality.

We went to the Lion's Barbecue at Canyon last Saturday night and O, Man! It was nothing short of wonderful. The steak that Joe Navone and Jim Lucas dished out to me was the juiciest morsel I have had in a long time. The food, entertainment and dancing were like nothing experienced except at an Orinda Lion's picnic.

I HAD SUCH A GOOD TIME last week that I want to do something for someone. Tell you what . . . the first customer who comes in and wants a lawn mower can have a brand new Rotomower for $59.00. That's the electric mower with the whirling blade that clips the grass into short lengths and deposits it back on the lawn. I've used one of these machines for a year and they are wonderful. Sells for $79.00, too.

I want to make a public announcement that my days as an engineer are over. (No, Jack Cooper, not a too too train engineer, but a mechanical engineer.)

After many months of negotiating, I have sold my last slide rule to Henry Harris. Took a whole week to make as much as I'm going to get for it when I was workin' on the Brooklyn Bridge. From here on in I'm Frank the Merchant at your service.

Say, speaking of service, have you tried calling Orinda 2585 and asking us to deliver your order? We'll do it . . . and free, too.

DID YOU CATCH the square dance exhibition last Sunday night at the Park Pool. The exhibitionists were the Stan Allens, Clarence Betz', Don Hunters, my better half and yours truly. Sure, we were good — I'm Frank.

LET'S SEE NOW: we have a date for you to drop in to the Orinda Hardware Store, a hop, skip and an aleman left from the X roads, and I'll tell you about the Fair, show you our new Worth tools, explain the operation of the world's slickest lawn mower, the Rotomower, and, if you like, I'll give you a quick lesson to the tune of Cotton-eyed Joe.

JUST COME ON IN and look around for the baldheaded, chubby fellow . . . .

...I'm Frank

Horseman's Rights On Highway Told

This is truly "Our Horseman's Paradise" and the following account is in order. The proper conduct of motorists and equestrians, when the two modes of transportation chance to meet on the highways, is stated according to Section 532 of the Vehicle Code:

"The driver of any vehicle approaching any horse drawn vehicle, any ridden animal or any livestock shall exercise proper control of his vehicle and shall reduce speed or stop as may appear necessary or as may be requested by any person riding or driving any animal or by any person in charge of any such livestock in order to avoid frightening and to safeguard any such animal or livestock and to insure the safety of any person driving or riding such animal or in charge of such livestock."

It should be pointed out that the ridden horse is considered "a vehicle," in that it should be ridden on the right side of the road as near to the right hand curb as possible.

"The Horseman," a magazine published monthly by the California State Horsemen's Association, also advises all riders to ride off of the highway on the shoulder or additional right of way, if there is sufficient room. In some counties, the magazine points out, it is illegal to ride a horse on the burms of a road. The burms being the raised shoulder which keeps heavy rainfalls from running over the side of the road and deteriorating the bank of earth supporting the roadway.

So, Mr. Motorist . . . give the rider opportunity to control his horse properly . . . give him the right-of-way.

Football Season Send-Off Tonight

The collegiate football season will have a mighty send off at Berkeley's Fourth Annual Football Festival today, with major universities and colleges throughout the West Coast participating in the celebration.

Highlight of the Festival will be a gigantic parade beginning at 8 p.m. tonight, the eve of the opening game between UC's Bears and Santa Clara's Broncos.

Child Health Conference Held at Diablo High

Child Health Conference was the subject of an institute held rerecently at Mt. Diablo High School in Concord. Purpose was to discuss basic principles governing the program and county coverage. The institute was sponsored by the Sixteenth District, CCPT under the direction of Mrs. Robert O'Neill, public health and social hygiene chairman.

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Erwin Mattson

FOOTBALL FEVER is beginning to take hold with the prospect of games this weekend really serving notice that King Football is back on the throne.

Acalanes High School presents its 1949 version of the pigskin game when they encounter a light but fast and tricky Albany eleven tonight under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

THE DONS come up with one of their heavier clubs composed of a better than average number of seniors. Having a number of four year men on a squad has certain advantages and certain disadvantages.

MANY COACHES say they prefer a junior squad because a junior player is on his toes all the way whereas a senior often feels that he has made the grade and tends to coast.

On a logical basis, a senior should be at his best but such is not always the case. Many say that the Stanford Vow boys played their best ball in their sophomore year. They were hungry for victory then and went all out to attain it. Having once occupied the top they tended to ease off.

MOST ENTHUSIASTIC group on a high school squad is made up of freshmen. They are full of pep and eager to learn. The "newness" of the situation appeals to their exploratory sense. A group of seniors with the same enthusiasm would be tough to beat.

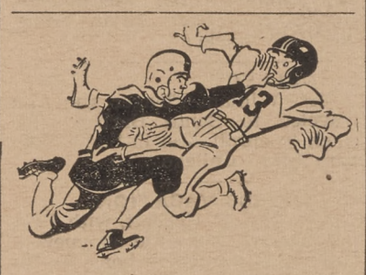

The squad at Acalanes has been hard at work with a stress on physical condition. Team play has lagged as a result and this week has been spent in an attempt to ease up on the heavy work while putting the finishing touches on the basic plays to be used in the Albany game.

SQUAD SPIRIT has been good and the opening of school seems to have kindled the spark so necessary for top play.

Junior varsity travelled to Antioch yesterday but too late to give the results here.

COACH CHARLES EATON has had his hands full selecting a travelling squad due to the large number on hand. One hundred and eight turned out for football and with thirty four on the varsity it leaves better than six full teams on the junior varsity.

Players are being shifted back and forth on both squads in order to find the best combinations. Several changes will be made on all teams come next Monday . . players will have displayed their wares in game conditions.

SOME PLAYERS STAND OUT in practice drills but lose their luster under the fire of competition. Others rise to the heights when the blue chips are down.

One thing that all coaches feel in common is that they are never really ready for the first game. We always wonder what will happen when certain players are in actual competition and can recall dozens of things we should have covered.

Should you have worked harder or easier? Too easy means a lack of condition and too hard means that you may have left your game on the practice field.

THE DIFFICULTY lies in the fact that teams are composed of individuals and as such they require different amounts of work. In general, few players really work to top capacity. Those that do, hit the top, provided they have an average amount of basic ability. But then that applies to most anything in life.

Next week the junior varsity travels to Diablo with game time set for Thursday, September 22 at 3:15.

VARSITY BOYS hit the road as they meet up with a top rate team in the El Cerrito Gauchos on Friday, September 23 with kickoff time set at 8 p.m.

Lafayette and Orinda Entries Win Prizes in Mt. Diablo Trail Ride

Several trophies and ribbons came to Lafayette and Orinda entries in the Concord-Mt. Diablo Endurance Trail Ride and the Labor Day horse show when pleasure horses, racers, jumpers, stock horses and endurance horses appeared before a large crowd in the Trail Ride grounds' grandstand at Concord on Monday.

Joe Hallett's entry in the ride, "Dinah," a registered half-bred Arab mare, half-sister to "Real-Silk," his registered half-Arab gelding that has taken highest honors in this trail ride for the past previous three years, took first place in the Lightweight Division and the American Remount Association silver plate for the highest scoring registered half-bred in the two-day, ninety mile ride from Concord up Mt. Diablo and back. "Dinah" was ridden by Mrs. Tim Leon of Concord.

In the Middleweight Division Kirby Morgan, Lafayette, was fourth; Pat Pfieffer. Orinda, sixth; and Ellen Galbraith, Lafayette, eighth. In the Junior Division, Jacqualine Dee Myers, Lafayette, was fourth.

In the Working Hunters, Sally Allen, Lafayette, rode "Lady Weston" to second place and took first in the English Pleasure Horse class; and in the Stock Horse class Jack Manners, Happy Valley, took first place with his horse "Smoke."

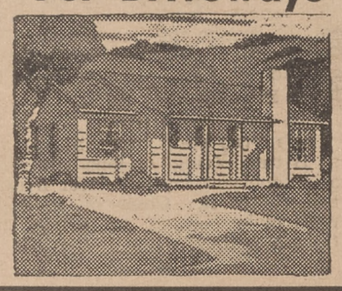

Top honors in the Trail Ride went to Hazel Cain, San Ramon, riding an Anglo-Arab mare "Harraha." They took first place in Middleweight Division, and the coveted Sweepstakes prize for highest scoring horse of the ride. Second place in this division went to the noted flat-saddle horsewoman and horse show judge, Mrs. J. Stanley Grepe, San Mateo, riding a part Thoroughbred gelding "Whiskalong." This entry took Sweepstakes in this ride several years ago.

Answering promptly—giving others a full minute to answer her call—are first on Janie's list of aids to service.

How Janie helps herself to better service

1. "Allowing a little time between calls," says Janie, "gives others a chance to call me . . . and it's a nice party-line courtesy, too." So when she's getting the gang together for a picnic, or for any reason needs to make calls in a row, she waits several minutes between each one. "It's simple to make friends with others on our line. I just use the telephone the way I like them to."

2. Looking up numbers, Janie knows, is really important. "So easy to get them mixed up," she explains. "Why, I was just sure Babs' number was 8145 . . . but when I called her I got the drug store. Turned out her number was 8415. So unless I'm really sure of a number, I'm going to look it up in the telephone book." That's a good tip for all of us—teen-agers and grown-ups.

3. Getting the most from the telephone—and helping others get better service—depends in part on every telephone user. Facilities have doubled in the West in ten years. Your telephone is today one of your most valuable servants . . . saving time, saving steps. And it still does its job for just a few pennies a call.

Plan Welcome Tea Tuesday

Tuesday is the date set for Orinda Mothers Club Welcome Tea, which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Long, on Lombardy Lane in Sleepy Hollow, from 2:30 until 5 o'clock.

This will be Mothers Club's 1st social event of the current school year and it is hoped that all mothers of Orinda and Glorietta school children, as well as teachers, will attend and thus renew old acquaintances and meet new residents in the area.

Members of the Board of Directors of Mothers Club will serve as reception committee. The event is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles P. Baker, 8th grade room mother at Orinda School. Assisting her are Mrs. James O. Armstrong, 7th grade room mother at Orinda School and Mrs. Patricia Small, room mother of the combined 7th and 8th grades at Glorietta School.

Mothers Meet To Set Budget

The Budget committee of Orinda Mothers Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Donald Krotz. Present were Mrs. Stanley Allen, treasurer and chairman of the meeting; Mrs. Krotz, president; Mrs. Fred von Guenthner, vice president; Mrs. Robert Harrison, last year's president; Mrs. D. C. Peacock, last year's treasurer. Club finances were discussed and a budget drawn up for the current school year's activities.

Additional appointments of chairmen for the school year have been announced by the president. They are: project, Mrs Kirk Miles; and subscriptions, Mrs. Richard Dunnigan.

Bridge Sessions To Begin Friday

The first Bridge sections of the Orinda Mothers Club will be held Friday, September 23.

The morning group will meet at 9:30 at the home of Mrs. Ray Devin, Jonas Hill Road, Moraga. Bridge will follow the serving of coffee and snails. The afternoon group will meet for dessert bridge at 12:45 at the home of Mrs. Starling Simmons, 10 Glorietta Court. Anyone interested in playing in either group please phone Mrs. Russell Gilwee, bridge chairman, Orinda 5921.

Bridge groups were started last year, under Mrs. Robert Harrison, with Mrs. William Courtright chairman, as a source of revenue for the Club. A fee of 50c is charged each player at each session. Last year this activity resulted in a profit of $205.50 to Mothers Club, which sum went toward the welfare of the two schools in the Orinda School District. Bridge groups have also proved to be a successful method of bringing members together, and a means whereby new residents in Orinda may become better acquainted.

After the 23rd, bridge groups will be scheduled regularly on the 1st and 3rd Fridays of every month, with a different hostess and co-hostess serving each time. Advance announcements will appear in this paper.

VISITS HERE

Mrs. George Cockerton visited last Friday with long-time friends in Orinda. She had luncheon with Mrs. Henry Moller and was the guest of the George Neldams at dinner. Mrs. Cockerton is a former resident.

Letters to the Editor

DEAR SIR:

The noble bard put it well indeed when he said that there was "Much Ado About Nothing!" What, may we ask, are the Minnesota Millmans trying to spill into our unsuspecting ears? It seems that they complain of Mr. Navone, who ONCE A WEEK comes by at an early hour to collect garbage. They feel that the squeaking brakes on his truck arouse the neighborhood dogs and set them to barking!

We feel most strongly that these selfsame dogs are in the habit of barking furiously any or all hours of the night, on any or all nights of the year — for little or no provocation — that our unusually quiet and pleasant neighbor, Mr. Navone, has been the subject of undue vilification.

With all due respect to Minnesota, the Millmans, and the normal human desire for rest at 4:00 a.m., we feel constrained to say that any barking which might possibly be instigated by the approach of a vehicle is such a minute part of the nerve-wracking, sleep-wrecking noise that the dogs repeatedly set up that it would surely be a miscarriage of justice should Mr. Navone be blamed for something neither he nor anyone else can seem to control!

Yours very truly,
Signed
E. and G. REEVES

P.S. — Where do the Millmans keep their ears on other days of the week?

DEAR SIR:

I was greatly interested in your story in the Orinda Sun about boys and guns at the Five Corners. About two weeks ago a bullet went over my property, passing about two yards (his estimate) in front of my boy's head and landing in my neighbor's garden perhaps four yards from where I stood.

About five minutes later I espied a sixteen-year-old boy sauntering down El Toyonal casually shooting a revolver into the dirt (at least such was his intention) as he walked along. It was just such a bang-bang-bang performance as one commonly sees on the part of very little boys with toy guns. I hot-footed it up the road and accosted the boy, who was certainly very polite about the whole affair.

The most interesting thing of all was that he seemed quite surprised that I should object to his performance, assured me he was very careful where his bullets went, and always watched out for children. No, he was sure the bullet that went so close to my son and me had not been his. I was the first person who had ever griped, but if I objected, he wouldn't do it any more.

So far as I know he has kept his word. However, I think it would be well for Orindans, adult and juvenile, to know what followed. I called the sheriff's office to find out what rights ordinary citizens might have in an unincorporated town like ours. They referred me to the District Attorney's office, who quoted me the law. According to Section 374c of the Penal Code it is a misdemeanor (I quote this from memory only) to shoot on, from or across the public highway, or onto anyone's property. Obviously the boy in question did not know these things as he seemed to consider his behavior quite reasonable.

I might also mention that here in our section of Orinda, it is forbidden by our deed restrictions to use firearms even on our own property. However, one would not wish to press this point unless the danger seemed close and specific, as it is not in my case at least.

Yours truly,
Signed
Mrs. Lauramay T. Dempster

Sorority to Hold Formal Initiation

Kappa Chapter, Phi Epsilon Phi Sorority, will hold its formal initiation ceremony next Friday evening at the Orinda home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bridwell.

President Grace Wilkinson will conduct the candlelit ceremony during which the following pledges will be received into membership: Miss Hildur de Wahl, Mrs. Clifford A. Johnson, Mrs. Wallace C. Kenton, and Mrs. James W. Lee. The initiates will then be entertained at a buffet supper to which husbands and escorts have been invited.

Distinguished guests to be present at the supper are Dr. Mary Burch and Dr. Bing-Chung Ling, members of the Mills College Faculty in the Department of Psychology. Dr. Ling has provided the Chapter with a stimulating educational program this year with her timely series of lectures on "Applied Psychology." Miss Lillian Schengel and Miss Jo Hutchings are in charge of preparations for the supper.

Drive Carefully — Save A Life

Religion Optional ? Subject of Sermon

"Is Religion Optional?" is the theme of Rev. Fred Morrow's sermon at Orinda Community Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. It is the Sunday of the choir's first Fall appearance under Mary Elizabeth Tomme. Mrs. C. P. Baker will preside at the console of the memorial organ.

Sunday school departments will meet at 9:30. A new feature is a department for high school young people led by John McFarland, with headquarters in the new library room. Sunday evening at 7 o'clock Pilgrim Fellowship meetings are resumed after irregular gathering during the vacation period. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Twining will have the assistance of four sets of parents in planning and carrying out the youth program.

Shower Honors Mrs. Bill Brock

Mrs. Coleman Doughty and Mrs. Russell Gilwee gave a baby shower for Mrs. Bill Brock September 7 at the home of Mrs. Doughty. Their guests from Orinda were the Mesdames Willard Miller, Bud De Witt, Simmons, Andrew Stokovitch, F. A. Kales, Ernest Cahl and Ed Solinsky. Also there were Mrs. Brock's sister, Ruth Eades from Santa Monica, Miss Casey Jones from Eugene, Oregon, Mrs. Kent Weaver and Mrs. T. L. McLaren of Berkeley.

Services Held For Father of Orindan

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Chapel of Grant D. Miller in Oakland for Erick Wohn, father of Kenneth Wohn of Orinda, who died in Oakland on Saturday.

A native of California, the deceased was husband of the late Margaret Wohn and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Julia LeFeber of Alameda and a niece, Mrs. Ethel Hellen of Oakland, besides his son, Kenneth.

Interment was at the Chapel of the Chimes.

SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

Billy Brailsford, son of the Wm. H. Brailsfords of Woodland Road, celebrated his seventh birthday last week with a luncheon and swimming party at the Oak Springs pool. Among his guests were his sister, Nancy, and Terry and Holly Hall, Julie and Diane Edelin, Cassandra Horton, Valerie Silva, Marjorie Williams, Michael and Susan Donvan, Jud Carter, Richard Rossi and Judith Nicolaysen.

All Around Orinda

WITH THE ROUNDER

WHENEVER WE RUN INTO A PROBLEM out this way, some kind and well meaning soul cuts loose with a helpful suggestion, generally involving the importation of animals to help solve Orindans difficulties.

Earlier this year, someone suggested that Clyde O. Sweet turn loose a flock of pigs over in Sleepy Hollow to eat up the rattlesnakes. Then along comes the Tribune's Knave with the idea that Orinda is infested with hornets . . . bears like hornet larvae . . . Orinda should import some bear.

And comes now Jeanette Millman, who is having a bit of a feud with our garbage company, with the suggestion that maybe Orindans could get free garbage service if there were some pigs around to eat up the refuse. What happens to all the cans in the garbage pail, we wouldn't know. But to do the thing up right, how about importing, along with the pigs, a herd of tin-can eating billy goats.

And an even better idea, the Rounder thinks, is to toss the whole silly garbage collection controversy into the garbage can and let Joe Navone, squeaky brakes and all, collect it the next time around.

LAST WEEK POOR LITTLE CANYON hit the papers in a most disquieting manner. Neither Alameda nor Contra Costa County seemed to know in which county Canyon was — or if it even existed. The Tribune proved that it did by printing a picture of slot machines lined up under some spreading redwoods alongside the highway.

Canyonites aren't too happy about the whole thing and some of them are cold-shouldering one of Canyon's residents who, of course, works for the Tribune. And the Orinda Lions Club feels it's a bit unfair to pounce on one of their shindigs and cry loudly over slot machines when darned near every organization you can name has a row of the one armed bandits at their affairs, even in Alameda County.

Looks as if the Tribune played both ends of this little affair, because from inside sources, we learned that the Trib called the Lions and tipped them off that they were going to be raided — AFTER tipping off the Sheriff as to what was going on . . . One tip was wrong — There was no raid.

The School Bonds, as everyone knows, were passed, but by a rather squeaky margin. Maybe a lot of other Orindans wonder, as does the Rounder, how come something isn't done about using all the unused space in the Moraga School since we are in such desperate need of additional classrooms.

ODDS AND ENDS AND ORINDANS:

Dave Dibbern startled Bruce Summers out of several years growth the other night. Dave, driving home early in the A.M. ahead of Bruce, fell asleep at the wheel over on Miner Road and made like a hill climbing motorcyclist up one of the banks, turned his car over, ruined it completely. Only injuries — Dave's and Bruce's nerves.

One family in Orinda is a bit red-faced this week. Got their daily meat ration in a rather unusual manner. Hughie Phair tossed out some pancake flour on his dump. A young Orindan found it — took some home — whipped up some flap-jacks — enpoyed a hearty meal. Discovered a while later why Hughie had thrown the stuff away. Full of weevils.

ONE WOULD THINK that some enterprising Oakland auto merchant, reading of Orindans taxes, bond issues, sewer assessments, etc., had decided Orinda should be a hot spot to dispose of low priced autos. One parked in the Village was for sale for $25. Another parked nearby could be had for $50, and now one sits on the street waiting for a buyer with $100. The $25 job . . . sold already. To an Oakland junk yard — for ten bucks.

IF JASPER ALLERA IS NOW DUCKING AROUND corners and refusing to answer the door-bell lately, blame it all on his children. They wrote, directed and acted in a play that they presented in their garage. Had quite an attendance too — thirty paid admissions at two cents a head.

But they forgot Uncle Sam and made no provision for entertainment tax. The future shows they are planning will probably make allowance for the tax collector's cut of the gate. But that first one has Jasper a bit worried.

JUST TO PROVE that anyone with the ability can take part in their plays, the Dramateurs, who held their try-outs for John Loves Mary last Monday night, selected for the leading role of Mary, Laura Cooper. Laura turned up at the meeting strictly in a spectator's role. Went home with the leading role tucked in her pocket.

And incidentally — an inside to Chenault Hecht. Come out of hiding "Cheesie" old boy. The Dramateurs are still hunting for the leading man for their play, and have been trying their darndest to contact you. Would like to have you try out for the part.

WRIGHT'S VILLAGE PHARMACY, besides serving up soda and drugs seems to have a knack of hiring good looking gals who work there for awhile and pop up suddenly with an engagement ring. Two have already gotten married since working for Beryl, another will be shortly.

And the puzzle of the whole thing is why they do it. Particularly, when right next door in the Orinda Electric's window was probably the most logical excuse for staying single that the Rounder ever saw.

The sign that the Fitch's had prominently displayed should have discouraged even the most hardy from ever saying "I do." It stated bluntly that by the time you've been married twenty-five years, you will have washed some 10 million dishes.

IF YOU PARTICIPATED in the Park Pool fashion show earlier this year, your picture is probably hanging in the Orinda Store. Just walk in and help yourself to any picture you happen to be in — and unexpectedly — for free.
